Reflections: After the Fire

THE FALL 2017 FIRESTORM EXPRESSED THROUGH PAINTING, PHOTOGRAPHY, VIDEO, AND MIXED MEDIA WORK

AUG 20 - DEC 14, 2018

Sonoma State University Library Gallery

LIBRARY.SONOMA.EDU
The Library’s fall 2018 exhibit is a group show comprised of 21 California-based participants documenting and responding to the fall 2017 firestorm through painting, photography, video, and mixed media work.

SHOW IS LOCATED IN  LIBRARY GALLERY AND 2NORTH EXHIBIT AREA.

Reception WED. 10/17
Wine and light refreshments
4 - 5:30 PM • Library

Exhibit 8/20-12/14
For hours visit library.sonoma.edu

RSVPs welcome but not required. The event is open to the public.

Parking pass required 24/7 – $5

The October 17 reception recognizes the day Sonoma State University reopened, a sign of perseverance after the fire. For a complimentary parking pass for the reception, email library@sonoma.edu or call 707.664.2397 by Wednesday, October 10.

For inquiries, contact library@sonoma.edu

SHOWN ON FRONT
Ulysses Duterte, Jr., “California Wildfire #3,” 2017, watercolor on paper.
Christopher Woodcock, “Nuns Fire burning east of the City of Sonoma, 4 am October 15th 2017,” 2018, photo.